

The increase in number of US airline passengers from 1949 to 1960.

- The purpose of analyzing Airpassenger dataset is to prove that there is an increase in the number of passengers each year.
- The charts below show that there is an increase in number of passengers especially in 1960 when the number of passengers was around 622. Also, the charts shows that most passengers travel during Summer especially in July and August.

